

Graduation Ceremony

“Economic Empowerment Program for Women in Jordan”

On 24 January, 2019, H.E. Mr. Hidenao YANAGI, Ambassador of Japan to Jordan, attended at “Graduation Ceremony for the First Corhot Graduates of Economic Empowerment Program for Women in Jordan” organized by UNWOMEN in partnership of Jordan Education for Employment (JEFE) and made a remark at the ceremony. Government of Japan extended an assistance amount 700,000 USD to the UNWOMEN project titled “Women’s leadership, Empowerment, Access and Protection in Crisis Response(LEAP)” in 2017.

H.E. Mr. Samir Murad, Minister of Labor, H.E. Mr. Andrea Fontana, Ambassador of European Union, Ms. Ghadeer Khuffash, CEO of JEFE, and Mr. Ziad Sheikh, Representative of UNWOMEN also delivered their speech and Minister Samir Murad handed over the certificates to each graduates.

Many of the graduates who participated in the ceremony and UNWOMEN staffs expressed their appreciation for Japanese generous support for LEAP projects.

Handing over their certificates

Group photo with female graduates