

Celebration of H.E. Dr. Jafar Hassan's Decoration

On February 27th 2020, Ambassador of Japan to Jordan Mr. YANAGI Hidenao celebrated H.E. Dr. Jafar Hassan, Former Deputy-Prime Minister for Economic Affairs, for the Decoration (the Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Star) at the Ambassador's residence. Dr. Hassan was conferred the Decoration on Foreign Nationals Autumn 2019. Dr. Hassan attended the conferment ceremony held at the Imperial Palace of Tokyo on November 7th, 2019, where he was awarded the medal by Prime Minister Mr. ABE Shinzo, and attended an audience with His Majesty the Emperor Naruhito.

Dr. Hassan has served as Minister of Planning and International Cooperation, Director of His Majesty's Office, and Deputy-Prime Minister for Economic Affairs. Throughout his career, Dr. Hassan has worked for strengthening the bilateral relationship between Japan and Jordan, by pushing forward political and economic cooperation, and realizing success of many mutual high-level visits.

A lot of guests including Senators, ministers, and government officials participated in the celebration, in order to congratulate Dr. Hassan's decoration, expressing their wishes for further development of the Japan-Jordan relations in the future.

Remarks by Ambassador Yanagi

Remarks by H.E. Dr. Jafar Hassan

H.E. Dr. & Mrs. Hassan with Ambassador & Mrs. Yanagi

(Reference: "Conferment of Decorations on Foreign Nationals, 2019 Autumn")

<https://www.mofa.go.jp/files/000533919.pdf>