

Courtesy Visit from FAO Representative in Jordan

16 August 2020, Dr. Nabil ASSAF, new representative of FAO in Jordan, paid a courtesy visit to on Ambassador Mr. Hidenao YANAGI and introduced FAO's cooperation with Japan in Algeria where Dr. ASSAF served as a representative before assigned in Jordan. He also explained the successful outcomes of the Japanese funded project in 2018, titled "Social Stability and Resilient Livelihoods for Syrian Refugees and Vulnerable Jordanian Farm Families from Hosting Communities" and appreciated valuable support from Japan and conveyed his expectation of possible future cooperation in Jordan.

Ambassador YANAGI appreciated the important role of FAO in the field of food security and nutrition, in particular, because ongoing COVID-19 pandemic affect food security and nutrition, and expressed his expectation to work closely with FAO toward Tokyo Nutrition Summit in 2021.

