The Embassy in Japan and Royal Film Commission Launch Japanese Film Days 2022

On 15th March, the Embassy of Japan in Jordan and Royal Film Commission launched Japanese Film Days. In two consecutive days, two drama films that highlight social issues in Japan today are screened. The film show takes place in Rainbow Theatre in Amman from 07:00 pm on 15th and 16th March for free.

The films screened include “NORIBEN: The Recipe for Fortune” directed by Akira Ogata and “Osaka Hamlet” by Fujirou Mitsuishi. The Embassy of Japan stated that it is sure that the films screened contribute to deepening Jordanians’ understanding on Japanese society, hoping that many Jordanians enjoy watching Japanese films and get interested in Japanese culture.
